

NGĀTI MANUHIRI SETTLEMENT TRUST

CANDIDATE STATEMENTS

Annie BAINES

Kia ora whanau.
My name is Annie Baines. I came from the Timi Paraone tupuna whanau.
I currently work as a production accountant in TV and film.

I represented our marae on the Ngatiwai Trust Board from 2015-2022. I am currently the Chair of Omaha Marae.

I am putting my name forward to become a Trustee – because I believe a change is needed. I believe in honesty, transparency and inclusiveness – and would like to try and create some kotahitanga between the hapū, the marae and our iwi.

Ringi BROWN

As the longest serving Trustee, Ringi is a loyal and dedicated Kaitiaki of the rohe of Ngāti Manuhiri. Residing full-time in Pākiri, Ringi provides support to the whānau in the valley and understands their concerns, especially regarding te taiao. Ringi's passion for Kaitiakitanga means he has led and been involved in many restoration projects and translocations across the Mahurangi and islands of Te Moananui ā Toi.

Ringi's kind-hearted nature and positive ahua means he is a go-to person within the whānau and wider community for trusted advice and extensive knowledge.

In Ringi's spare time you may see him riding the highways on his motorcycle or spending time with his children and grandchildren in the Wairarapa.

Ringi is a direct descendant of Rahui Te Kiri and Tenetahi Pohuehue and his tupuna is their potiki, Ringi Paraone.

"I am standing because I believe in our Trust and am proud of our mahi."

Terrence Mook HOHNECK

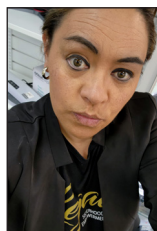

Mook is a staunch advocate for the Ngāti Manuhiri Settlement Trust. Mook was the lead Treaty Negotiator through the Settlement Claims process then taking the position as CEO in 2012 before becoming Chairman in 2018.

Mook has extensive knowledge in matauranga māori, whakapapa and manuhiritanga. He is passionate about extending the cultural footprint of Ngāti Manuhiri and expressing mana motuhake. Mook's experience in the commercial space ensures that the Trust is a well-run organisation that delivers outcomes for our hapū.

In his spare time, Mook is a loving and devoted father of 5 and a doting grandfather of 6 as well as a world-renowned woodchopper and dedicated rugby enthusiast.

Mook is a direct descended of Rahui Te Kiri and Tenetahi Pohuehue and his tupuna is their eldest son, Witaiawa.

"I am standing to continue the mahi for my people and uphold the mana of our tupuna Manuhiri."

Sara HUNTER

Kia ora e te iwi, my name is Sara Terehia Hona, my nanny is Carol Ann Hunter. She is the eldest to my Koro Colin Hunter, I was raised in Rotorua where my Koro Colin moved to. My Koro Colin told me the story of he & his brother relocating to Central north. My hope is to give back to our Ngāti Manuhiri iwi where I can through my life and achievements of academic degree in Te reo teaching program and Tikanga Maori level 7. Naa reira e te whanau whanui I look forward to being your voice at the Board table if I maybe successful.
